

HISTORY OF THE OLD WEST

Your Nevada Experience Starts Here....

As the state capital, Carson City boasts a rich and colorful history. Discover all it has to offer as you experience the city and its past.

KIT CARSON TRAIL

Pick up a map at the Carson City Visitors Center; 716 N. Carson St.

The Kit Carson Trail is an easy to navigate and leisurely 2.5 mile walking path that guides you past 100+ historic homes and buildings. It features 1800s-era Victorian-style homes, museums and churches that tell the story of the capital city's history. The trail include the Orion Clemens House, Territorial Secretary and brother of Samuel Clemens (Mark Twain); the Krebs-Peterson House, site of John Wayne's last movie, the Shootist and the home of Dat So La Lee, "queen" of the Washoe Tribe basket weavers.

V&T RAILWAY

The East Gate Depot - Eastgate Siding Rd.

The Virginia and Truckee Railroad is one of the most famous short lines in American history. Rediscover Nevada's rich history in mining and mills as you meander through tunnels, canyons and mining towns aboard a restored coach led by a steam locomotive. Journey back in time on this unique excursion from Carson City to Virginia City that is fully narrated with historical facts and anecdotes.

NEVADA STATE RAILROAD MUSEUM

Head south on 395 just a short way; 2180 South Carson St.

The Nevada State Railroad Museum is home to the most unique fleet of historic trains in the country. Considered one of the finest regional railroad museums in the country, the railroad museum houses five steam locomotives and several restored coaches and freight cars. Most featured equipment is from the Comstock Era's Virginia and Truckee Railroad. During select days, the Museum offers visitors an opportunity to ride one of these amazing artifacts.
